20. Section 17 of the principal Act is hereby amended –

a) by the substitution in subsection (1) for paragraph (a) of the following paragraph: "(a) A firearm which may be possessed in a private collection is [any] a firearm approved for collection by an accredited collector's association, based upon such historical, heritage, technological, scientific, educational, cultural, commemorative, investment, rarity, thematic or artistic value determined by the association, of which the private collector is a member in good standing and where such firearm has been demonstrated to be part of the said private collector's approved field of interest or theme or both such field or theme.";

b) the substitution for subsection (1A) of the following subsection. "(1A) The number of firearms that a private collector, in respect of a prescribed category, may collect are the following:

- (a) Category A – not exceeding 100 but not more than 50 prohibited and restricted firearms;
- (b) Category B – not exceeding 50 firearms but not more than 20 restricted firearms;
- (c) Category C – not exceeding 20 ordinary firearms; and
- (d) Category D – not exceeding six."

c) by the insertion of the following subsections after subsection (1A) -

"(1B) An accredited collectors' association may not classify a private collector in more than one Category at a given time.

(1C) Where a private collector graduates from a lower to a higher category, the number of firearms held by the private collector in the lower category will be limited to the maximum number of firearms applicable to the next higher category.

(1D) Where a private collector downgrades to a lower category, the number of firearms held by the private collector in the higher category will be reduced to the maximum number of firearms applicable to the lower category.

(1E) A restricted or prohibited firearm or device possessed for purposes of private collection, may only be possessed if permanently deactivated in the prescribed manner.

(1F) Any firearm, other than a restricted or prohibited firearm, which was manufactured after 1900 and which is possessed in a private collection must be stored after having undergone a prescribed non-damaging procedure to ensure that no cartridge can be loaded into or discharged from that firearm.”.

d) by the substitution for subsection (2) of the following subsection:

"(2) The Registrar may issue a licence in terms of this section to a private collector if the application is accompanied by a sworn statement or solemn declaration from the chairperson of an accredited collectors association, or someone delegated in writing by him or her, stating that the applicant is a registered member in good standing of that association and qualifies to collect the firearm, prohibited firearm or restricted firearm."

e) By the deletion of subsection (3A) and (4);

f) by the addition of the following subsections after subsection (4);

“(5) Notwithstanding section 91 of this Act, a private firearm collector’s licence does not authorise the possession and use of ammunition for any firearm that is part of the firearms collection to which the licence relates.

(6) Despite subsection (5), a private firearm collector may possess a maximum number of ten cartridges for a particular firearm in the collection for purposes relating to genuine collecting and collector activities in terms of this section.

(7) In terms of this section, members of the same household may not be collectors of both firearms and ammunition of similar calibre or type.”

Amendment of section 18 of Act 60 of 2000

21. Section 18 of the principal Act is hereby amended –

a) by the substitution for subsection (1) of the following subsection:

“(1) Ammunition which may be possessed in a private collection is any ammunition approved for collection by an accredited collectors association[.], subject to section 17(5) and 17(6).”

b) by the substitution in subsection (2) for paragraph (a) of the following paragraph:

“(2) (a) The Registrar may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, issue a permit in terms of this section to a private collector if the application is accompanied by a sworn statement or solemn declaration from the chairperson of an accredited collectors association, or someone delegated in writing by him or her, stating the applicant is a registered member in good standing of that association.”.

by the substitution in subsection (2) for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:

“(b) A collector contemplated in paragraph (a) may not possess more than [200] 25 rounds of ammunition of any particular calibre [unless the Registrar approves the possession of a higher number in writing].

c) by the deletion of subsection (5); and

d) by the addition of the following subsection after subsection (5): “(6) In terms of this section, members of the same household may not be collectors of both firearms and ammunition of similar calibre or type.”.

Amendment of section 20 of Act 60 of 2000, as amended by section 3 of Act 43 of 2003

22. Section 20 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

a) by the substitution in subsection (1) for paragraphs (a) and (b) of the following paragraphs, respectively: “(a)A firearm in respect of which a licence may be issued in terms of this section is any firearm other than a prohibited or restricted firearm.

(b) Despite paragraph (a), a licence in respect of a [prohibited or] restricted firearm may be issued to a person contemplated in subsection (2)(c) but such person may only provide the [prohibited or] restricted firearm for use in theatrical, film or television productions and then only if the prior written approval of the Registrar has been obtained and on such conditions as the Registrar may impose.”;

b) by the addition in subsection (1) of the following paragraphs:“(c) Despite paragraph (a), a licence in respect of a restricted firearm may be issued to a person contemplated in subsection (2)(a),(b),(d) and (e) and (f) if the Registrar is satisfied, taking into account the nature of the business of the applicant, the extent of the risks involved in conducting the business and the need for a restricted firearm. (d) In evaluating the extent of the risk referred to in paragraph (bA), the Registrar may require the applicant to furnish a risk assessment report. ”;

c) by amending paragraph (f) in subsection (2)

"any person who is accredited to use firearm for such other business purpose as prescribed. [the Registrar may determine]."

d) by the insertion after subsection (2) of the following subsections: "(2A) The Registrar, in considering the application in terms of this section must take into account the nature, the extent, the purpose of the business and a need for the use and transportation of firearms in that type of business."; and

(2B) An application by a security service provider must be accompanied by a recommendation from the Authority as prescribed in the Regulations issued in terms of the Private Security Industry Regulation Act.

e) by the addition of the following subsections:

"(8) (a) The Authority must on a monthly basis inform the Registrar of any new registration, suspension, sale, transfer, liquidation, merger, lapsing or termination of the registration or ownership of a security service provider or any other material change or reason that would necessitate the licensing, relicensing or disposal of firearms in the possession of such security provider. (b) The association that accredits persons referred to in subsection (2)(b),(c),(d) and (e) must inform the Registrar of any new accreditation, suspension, sale, transfer, liquidation, merger, lapsing or termination of accreditation or membership of the business of the accredited persons, or any other material change or reason that would necessitate the licensing, relicensing or disposal of firearms in the possession of such persons.

(16) The Registrar must, at the written request of the Authority, submit a list of all firearms registered to a particular security service provider within 30 days of the request being made.

(17) It is an offence for a security service provider and any person contemplated in this subsection to hire out or permit any other person to use a firearm issued under this section for any purpose other than the purpose for which the licence was issued.

(18) The Registrar may not issue a licence to a security service provider until written proof of the award of a contract to render a security service that require the use of firearms is furnished.

(19) Despite subsection (11), the Registrar may issue a letter to a security service provider who meets the requirements of the Act, stating that the firearm licence shall be issued upon the award of the contract.

(20) When the Registrar is informed of any circumstances referred to in subsection (8)(a), the Registrar may cancel a firearm licence in terms of section 28 of the Act."

Substitution of heading of Chapter 12 of Act 60 of 2000

60. The following heading is hereby substituted for the heading of Chapter 12:

"SUSPENSION OF FIREARM LICENCE AND DECLARATION OF PERSONS AS UNFIT TO POSSESS FIREARM".

Amendment of section 102 of Act 60 of 2000, as amended by section 21 of Act 17 of 2011

61. Section 102 of the principal Act is hereby amended—

(a) by the substitution for the heading of the following heading:

"Declaration [by Registrar of person] of persons as unfit to possess firearm and suspension of a competency certificate and firearm licence";

(b) by the insertion of section 1A after subsection (1)

"(1A) The Registrar may institute section 102 proceedings against any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provisions of this Act."

(c) the addition of the following subsections:

"(5) If the Registrar in terms of subsection (1) declares a person unfit to possess a firearm he or she must determine the period of such unfitness.

(6) In accordance with this section, the Registrar may suspend a person's licence or a competency certificate pending the final determination of his or her fitness to possess a firearm in terms of this section or section 103, if the Registrar becomes aware that the person has been—

(a) charged with or investigated for any offence that involves an element of violence; or

(b) served with an interim protection order in terms of the Domestic Violence Act, 1998 (Act No. 116 of 1998), or the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011 (Act No. 17 of 2011), the nature of which involves an element of violence.

(7) Where a licence or competency certificate has been suspended in terms of subsection (5), the Registrar must serve personally, or by post on that person a notice stating that the licence or competency certificate is suspended and the reasons for its suspension.

(8) A licence or a competency certificate that authorises a person to possess a firearm is automatically suspended on the making of an interim protection order issued against such person in terms of the Domestic Violence Act, 1998 (Act No. 116 of 1998), or the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011 (Act No. 17 of 2011).

(9) A suspension in terms of subsection (5) remains valid until the—

(a) process in terms of this section has been finalised;

(b) interim protection order is confirmed or revoked; or

(c) person is acquitted of the relevant charge, or such charge is withdrawn.

(10) Whenever an interim or final protection order is revoked or a charge that has an element of violence is withdrawn or a licence holder is acquitted of such charge, the firearm must be returned to the licence holder.

(11) A person whose firearm licence is suspended in terms of this section must, within 24 hours of being issued with a notice of suspension, surrender all firearms and ammunition registered in his or her name and in his or her possession to the nearest police station for safekeeping, as prescribed, pending the final determination of his or her fitness to possess a firearm.

(12) Once an interim protection order is confirmed, or a final protection order has been issued against a licensee in terms of the Domestic Violence Act, 1998 (Act No. 116 of 1998), or an interim protection order is confirmed, or a final protection order has been issued against the licensee in terms of the Protection from Harassment Act, 2011 (Act No. 17 of 2011), the licence holder is automatically unfit to possess a firearm.

(13) If a licence has been suspended in terms of this section all—

(a) competencies, licences, authorisations and permits issued to the relevant person in terms of this Act;

(b) firearms in his or her possession; and (c) ammunition in his or her possession, must be seized in terms of this Act."

Amendment of section 103 of Act 60 of 2000

62. Section 103 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for subsection (3) of the following subsection:

“(3) A court which has convicted a person of a crime or an offence contemplated in subsection (1), has made a determination contemplated in that subsection or has made a declaration in terms of subsection (2) must notify the Registrar in writing of that conviction, determination or declaration including the period of that declaration.”.

(c) by the addition in subsection (5) of the following paragraph:

"(c) to be a child under the age of 16 years, if such a child is not supervised by a licensed firearm holder."

(d) by the insertion in subsection (6) of the following paragraph:

“(a) any firearm, an antique firearm, [or] an airgun or a blank firearm, whether or not it is loaded or capable of being discharged, at any other person, without good reason to do so; or

(b) anything which is likely to lead a person to believe that it is a firearm, an antique firearm, [or] an airgun or a blank firearm at another person, without good reason to do so.”.

(e) by the insertion in subsection (8) of the following paragraph:

“(c) carries or uses a firearm issued in terms of Chapter 6 anywhere other than travelling to or at the premises related to the purpose for which it was acquired and licensed.”.

(f) by the insertion in subsection (9) of the following paragraph:

“(f) supply particulars, information or answers in an application for a competency certificate, licence, permit, accreditation [or] authorisation or any other application in terms of this Act, knowing them to be false, incorrect, or misleading or not believing them to be correct;

(g) by the insertion in subsection (10) of the following paragraph:

“(b) be in possession of any firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm, with intent to commit an offence or to use the firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm to resist arrest or prevent the arrest of another person.”.

(h) by the insertion in subsection (10A) of the following paragraph:

“In determining whether a person intends to use the firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm to commit an offence, all relevant factors, including, but not limited to, the following must be taken into account:

- c) the manner in which the firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm is carried or displayed;
- d) whether the possession of the firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm was within the context of drug dealing, gang association, organised crime or any other criminal activity; or (e) any other relevant factors, including any explanation the person may wish to provide for his or her possession of the firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm: Provided that this paragraph shall not be interpreted as an obligation on the person to explain his or her possession of the firearm, airgun, deactivated firearm, muzzle loading firearm, [or] imitation firearm, or blank firearm.”.

Amendment of section 124 of Act 60 of 2000, as amended by section 16 of Act 43 of 2003

65. Section 124 of the principal Act is hereby amended by—

- (a) by the deletion in subsection (2) of the word "and" at the end of paragraph (g);
- (b) by the substitution in subsection (2) for the full-stop at the end of paragraph (i) of the expression "; and";
- (c) by the addition in subsection (2) of the following paragraph:

"(j) submit to the Minister and Parliament a quarterly report on—

- (i) theft and losses of all firearms and ammunition in the possession of, or issued to members of, the Service and other Official Institutions;
- (ii) theft and losses of all firearms and ammunition exhibits and firearms and ammunition surrendered to the Service for destruction;
- (iii) the outcome of the investigations into theft and losses of all firearms and ammunition under the control of the Service and other Official Institutions; and
- (iv) the disciplinary steps taken and criminal prosecutions instituted against members who have lost firearms and ammunition through negligence.”; and

(d) by the addition of the following subsections:

"(4) A Designated Firearms Officer must, as far as practically possible and taking into account—

(a) the geographical location of a police station;

(b) the population it serves;

(c) the extent of the duties of such Designated Firearms Officer at the particular police station; and

(d) the need for effective service delivery and accessibility of services to the public, be designated at each police station or a station cluster.

"(5) The Designated Firearms Officer must, in addition to such firearm-related duties as may be assigned to him or her by the Registrar or the Head of the Central Firearms Register, perform the following functions:

(a) receive and process all applications for competency certificates, licences and authorisations;

(b) ensure compliance with Chapter 11 by members of the Service including ensuring that such members undergo the prescribed competency testing, and that an official firearm is only issued to a member who has passed the prescribed tests and has been issued with the prescribed permit to be in possession of a firearm;

(c) perform inspections at Official Institutions within the police station district to ensure compliance with Chapter 11 of this Act;

(d) at any reasonable time, perform regular and random inspections at the business premises of security service providers to ensure compliance with this Act, in particular in respect of the safekeeping and issuing of firearms and ammunition to employees;

(e) ensure that all firearms and ammunition handed in for destruction, and which are identified as having a heritage status, are inspected by a representative of the South African Heritage Resources Agency established in terms of the National Heritage Resources Act, 1999 (Act No. 25 of 1999), before destruction in order to consider preserving them for heritage purposes; and

(f) ensure that all firearms destined for destruction be submitted to the Forensic Science Laboratory of the Service for an Automated Ballistics Identity test.

(6) A Designated Firearms Officer is responsible for functions relating to the administration and compliance of this Act.

(7) A person designated as a Designated Firearms Officer shall be subjected to undergo a vetting investigation referred to in section 2A of the National Strategic Intelligence Act, 1994 (Act No. 39 of 1994).

(8) A designation as a Designation Firearms Officer of a person who fails to obtain successful vetting results shall be withdrawn.
